MEET Judith

HELLO! I'M JUDITH THOMAS GRIFFITHS.

I'm a UGC creator, entrepreneur, marriage coach, speaker, and content creator who believes the best content feels like a recommendation from a trusted friend.

I create authentic videos that educate, inspire, and encourage purchasing decisions without feeling like traditional advertising.

Whether I'm demonstrating skincare, sharing home favorites, or telling a story through lifestyle content, my goal is always the same:

help brands build trust with their audience.

My content is warm, relatable, and engaging—designed to connect, convert, and create real results.
